Describing what something is by explaining what it is not.

"Affirmation Through Negation."

FALL OF THE REPUBLIC

"Because choice is subsequent to a judgment upon the truth of the matter presented, is an immutably true principle that human Liberty depends entirely upon judgments which conform to Natural Law. If a judgment which does not conform to Natural Law, which is therefore objectively false and immoral, is acted upon by the will, then it becomes a source of grave disorder in society. Exponentially multiply these numbers of individual immoral acts, and you have a Republic that collapses from moral decay in a short period of time."

- Aquinas, On Liberty
